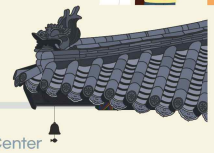
Culture of Yangju
Living, breathing history



01 Yangju Hoeamsa Temple Site-Hoeamsaji Museum of Yangju City

11, Hoeamsa-gil (259-1, Yuljeong-dong) 031-8082-4187

Yangju Hoeamsa Temple Site is home to Hoeamsa Temple, a prominent Buddhist temple that led the Buddhist culture from the Goryeo dynasty era until the early Joseon dynasty era through its close relationship with the royal family. It is a national treasure of Korea that received recognition as a UNESCO World Heritage in 2022. The museum features relics and various experience media such as brass and gold tables, roof tiles with crests and various pottery, as well as traditional performances, embodying the essence of Buddhist culture and the royal lifestyles of the time.

02 Songam Space Center

103, Gwonyul-ro 185-gil, Jangheung-myeon (410, Seokhyeon-ri) 031-894-6000

It is a theme park that delivers astronomical observations and virtual space experiences. With Korea's first Korean-developed 600mm reflecting telescope, visitors can immerse themselves in the beauty of deep space. Experience the stars at night at Korea's only Challenge Learning Center and Digital Planetarium.

03 Chang Ucchin Museum of Art Yangju City

193, Gwonyul-ro, Jangheung-myeon (385-1, Seokhyeon-ri) 031-8082-4245

The museum exhibits the simple yet modest art pieces by Jang Ukjin, the iconic modern and contemporary Korean painter. Located within a sculpture park, the museum building, designed after Jang Ukjin's works in pure white, catches people's attention from across a park stream. It also features a variety of educational programs and events.

04 Min Bokjin Museum of Art Yangju City

192, Gwonyul-ro, Jangheung-myeon (394, Seokhyeon-ri) 031-8082-4255

The museum opened in March 2022 with donated art pieces from Min Bokjin, a first-generation modern Korean sculptor from Yangju. The museum expanded its facilities around the theme of Min Bokjin's artistic perspective, "the positive power of humanity," offering programs that further expand the accessibility of cultural assets. At "Min Bokjin Art Museum, offering artistic healing," visitors can enjoy sculptures and experience a healthy and happy everyday life.

05 FEELUX Lighting Museum

235-48, Gwangjeok-ro, Gwangjeok-myeon (633, Seoku-ri) 0507-1411-8911

The museum features a variety of spaces from the exhibition hall. Visitors can have glimpses of the past, present and future of lighting at the experience hall and understand the principles of light through hands-on experiences. Spaces including the Lighting History Halls, Special Exhibition Hall, Light Pollution Exhibition Hall and Emotional Lighting Experience Learning Hall offer various light experiences. Christmas special exhibitions are held at the end of the year, During autumn, the Moon Festival event takes place.

06 Cheongam Folk Museum

83-5, Gwonyul-ro, Jangheung-myeon (363, Ilyeong-ri) 031-855-5100

It is a special museum where the past, present and future coexist in harmony with nature and people. It s a place where the memories of the past are revived as if one were walking back in time through the streets of the 1960s and 1970s. Various folk items and agricultural equipment are displayed in a large area, and old living spaces such as makgeolli pubs, blacksmiths' shops and village schools are recreated by period and space.

07 Gana Art Park

117, Gwonyul-ro, Jangheung-myeon (8, Ilyeong-ri) 031-877-0500

As the first private art museum in Korea opened in 1984, it provides a creative space for artists and offers opportunities to admire and experience various artworks for the public. It is a complex cultural space that combines the Picasso Museum, Eva Arnisen Museum, Children's Art Museum, Atelier, Sculpture Park and Concert Hall.

08 Yangjumok Gwana

15 Buheungro 1399-gil (506 Yuyang-dong) 031-845-3134

Yangjugwara was established in the first year of King Jungjong during the Joseon Dynasty and served as the central administrative institution of Yangju for 417 years. Major buildings have been restored after 5 excavations and restorations. Today, various programs including permanent experience programs, traditional games, performances and events take place in the restored buildings.

09 Chosoang Memorial Hall

87, Yangyeon-ro 173-gil, Nam-myeon (214-7, Hwangbang-ri) 031-859-2288

It is a place where one can learn about and admire the noble life of independence activist Jo Soang. It is a special place that sheds new light on aspects of his life that are not well known despite his achievements as an independence activist. It allows visitors to reflect on his spirit of independence and nationalism and the sacrifices he made for the independence and democratic development of Korea

10 Yangju Olleung Royal Tomb

255-41, Hoguk-ro, Jangheung-myeon (Ilyeong-ri) 031-855-5228

It is the tomb of Queen Dangyeong, the queen of the 11th king of the Joseon dynasty, who was depicted in the modern drama "Queen of the Seven Days." Since its designation as a UNESCO World Heritage in June 2009, it remained closed to the public until recently. However, currently it is temporarily open to the public under trial operations.
